

WHAT YOU SAY AND HOW YOU SAY IT DEFINES THE GUEST'S ENTIRE EXPERIENCE

01 ~~"No problem."~~→ "Of course." or "My pleasure."The guest didn't ask if it was a problem. Don't introduce the idea.*02 ~~"You guys ready to order?"~~→ "You two" or address them directly.Read the table. Speak to who is actually sitting there.*03 ~~"Are you done with that?"~~→ "Were you still enjoying that, or may I clear?"Never put a guest in a position to say no.*04 ~~"Awesome!" / "Cool!" / "No worries!"~~→ "Absolutely." or "Certainly."Casual filler signals you're not operating at the same level as your guest.*05 ~~"Um..." / "Like..." / "Basically..."~~→ Pause instead. Say nothing.A confident pause beats an uncertain word every single time.*06 ~~"Thank you!" (back to a guest)~~→ "Absolutely, it was my pleasure."Receive gratitude gracefully. Don't deflect or mirror it back.*07 ~~Pointing to the restroom.~~→ "Right this way, follow me."Walk them there. Every time, without exception.*08 ~~"I don't know."~~→ "Let me find out for you right away."Never leave a guest without a path forward. Find it for them.*09 ~~"I'm sorry, I'm so sorry, I'm really sorry..."~~→ Apologize once. Mean it. Move to the solution.Repeating the apology keeps dragging the problem back into the room.10 ~~Cologne / perfume, wrinkled uniform, clutter.~~→ Your presence sets the standard before you speak.The guest forms an impression in the first three seconds. Make it work for you.
